

THE GENEVA RESORT, located at the sight of the present Orem Marina Park, was named after Geneva Dallim, daughter of the owner, John Dallim, who bought the sight in 1888. The resort boasted a state-wide reputation around the turn of the century. It burned down in the late 1980's. The photo comes from the book, "Sagebrush to Steel".